Benefiting Cumberland Crisis Pregnancy Center

Sponsor Proposal

Mission

The Memorial Day Classic strives to raise both dollars and awareness of the ministry of the Cumberland Crisis Pregnancy Center (CCPC). Since 1987, the CCPC has been providing resources and support for young women and families facing the challenges of an unplanned pregnancy. The services of the CCPC are free and available to everyone without regard to age, race, income, nationality, religious affiliation, disability, or other arbitrary circumstances. No one in need would ever be turned away. The CCPC is a donor-based ministry and receives no federal or state funding. The Memorial Day Classic is proud to support this wonderful ministry.

Introduction

We are planning for the 2018 Memorial Day Classic! With eleven races already come and gone, number twelve will take place on May 28, 2018! Each year, the race just gets bigger and better, and it continues to benefit the Cumberland Crisis Pregnancy Center (CCPC). Serving the community for over 31 years, the CCPC has impacted many lives. By supporting the 12th Annual Memorial Day Classic, you have the opportunity to financially support this ministry, as well as help continue this Memorial Day tradition in our community. The CCPC is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization.
